SPECIALIST MUSIC TEACHER POLICY - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Professional musicians invited by the School to teach in the John Forster Music Centre at NEGS provide all Specialist music lessons at the School. The Music Department, while providing support to teachers, parents and students does not provide any private music tuition.

The Music Department, while overseeing the Specialist Music Teaching Program, does not participate in any individual fee setting or invoicing. Individual teachers are responsible for setting their own fees, as well as issuing invoices and collecting fees due.

Lesson times are posted on the Notice board in the Music Centre.

Students are responsible for reading the Notice board for information regarding their lessons.

- It is recommended that students taking Singing lessons join the School Choir.
- It is recommended that students taking Musicianship lessons join the School Choir.
- It is recommended that students taking Instrumental lessons join a School Ensemble.

Missed Lessons

Enrolment for Instrumental Lessons constitutes an agreement to attend a particular class at a given time each week, for the duration of the school term. If 48 hours notice is given every attempt will be made to reschedule the individual lessons.

In the case of illness, the teacher should as a matter of courtesy, be contacted as soon as practical before the lesson.

If a teacher is not informed before a lesson, the lesson is forfeited and the fee charged.

For absences (excursions, tests, etc.) the teacher must be contacted at least 48 hours in advance. If the teacher is not informed at least 48 hours in advance and cannot reschedule, the lesson is forfeited and the fee charged.

Student Withdrawal

Unless otherwise advised, it is assumed that your child will attend lessons for the entire year. Should you wish to withdraw your child at the end of a given term, 4 weeks notification in advance must be made in writing to the Director of Music and the Specialist Music teacher. In the event that your child is withdrawn during the term, the remainder of the terms' fees will be forfeited. Where such a withdrawal is due to extenuating circumstances (eg. serious illness) a request for a partial refund should be made in writing to the NEGS Music Teacher and the Specialist Music teacher.
